2012 – 13 Health & Safety Workshop Series

The following safety and health workshops have been scheduled for starting this fall. You may attend as many as you wish. Workshops take place at different locations in the evenings from 5pm – 7:30pm. More details will be forthcoming in upcoming fliers but you are welcome to fax or mail this one to reserve your spot(s):

_____ Wednesday, November 14th, 2012

Where: CSEA Long Island Region 1, 3 Garet Place, Commack.

Globally Harmonized System and the updated Hazard Communication Standard: This spring OSHA updated the Hazard Communication Standard, integrating the Globally Harmonized System of Classification and Labeling of Chemicals (GHS), which uses symbols to convey the dangers faced when exposed to chemicals. What does this mean for workers? How do you make your boss comply with the new regulations?

_____ Wednesday, February 6th, 2013

Where: NYSUT Nassau Regional Office, 1000 Woodbury Road, Suite 214, Woodbury

Indoor Air Quality Workshop: Workers in offices, schools and other buildings are often subjected to poor air quality caused in part by poorly designed or functioning ventilations systems. Join us to learn how indoor air pollution can make you sick and what you can do about it.

_____ Wednesday, March 6th, 2013

Where: IBEW Local 1049, 745 Old Willets Path, Hauppauge

Occupational Hearing Loss Workshop: Noise is a common safety and health hazard. This forum will discuss the health effects of noise, what laws and regulations apply, and what unions should do to get employers to abate or reduce noise in the workplace and its dangers.

_____ Wednesday, April 3rd, 2013

Where: IBEW Local 25, 370 Vanderbilt Motor Parkway, Hauppauge.

9/11: Twelve years after 9/11, WTC workers, volunteers and residents are still sick. Some are becoming ill for the first time -- in some cases with cancer. Join us to find out what we know now. Find out more about the 2011 James Zadroga 9/11 Health and Compensation Act which provides medical treatment and compensation to those whose health was adversely affected by the collapse of the WTC towers.

_____ Wednesday, May 1st, 2013 / 5pm – 7:30pm

Where: 1199SEIU, 100 Duffy Avenue, Hicksville
